SIX BELOW

zero mark has been reached in Tonopah, which is the subject of congratulations, since up in Humboldt and Elko counties it is a common occurrence for the cold to show down as low as 20 and 30 below. Last week near Winnemucca 18 below was reported.

For the consolation of those who felt the cold much worse than the official reading it may be mentioned that at the gas house a reliable thermometer read 10 below and at the Montana shaft 9 below was the reading. This morning at 7 o'clock the reading in front of the Butler theater was 4 below and at 9 a. m. the mercury stood at 2 below. The highest reading today was 8 degrees. On January 6, 1913, the highest was 9 degrees.

The worst experience came yesterday, when the falling temperature was accompanied by a wind that measured 30 miles an hour at 5 o'clock. The minimum reading Sunday was 2 degrees at midnight. At 5 p. m. it was 1.40 and at 6 a. m. today 4 below.

The prediction this morning was for continued cold tonight and Tuesday. In connection with the cold wave it may be mentioned for the sake of those who have been following the controversy between the government forecasters and the sunspot prophets that Father Ricard, editor of the Sunspot, printed at Santa Clara, predicted on the first of the month that there would be a cold wave of intense severity January 14, to be followed by others of milder type on the 18th, 21st, 23rd, 29th and February 1st.

The United States forecast for the week beginning Sunday, January 14, is as follows:

"Rocky mountain and plateau region: Except for local snows Wednesday and Thursday in the north and snow or rain in southern parts, the weather will be generally fair, with temperatures below the seasonal average.

"Pacific states: There will be general rains over the Pacific states during the first half of the week and will be frequent thereafter; the temperature will average below the seasonal normal.

BOOKS OF EGG TRUST SEIZED

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT PROBES INTO AN INJUNCTION WRIT

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Special agents of the department of justice today examined the records of the Chicago Butter and Egg board seized yesterday, in an attempt to determine whether the organization had violated an injunction issued by Federal Judge Landis in 1914 preventing the fixing of prices.

It was intimated that seizure of the books and records of Elgin, Ill., butter and egg dealers was contemplated, it being believed that they would throw light on the operations of the Chicago board.

"GOOD BYE OLD PARD" REMARKED HIS OLD COWBOYS AT BUFFALO BILL'S PUBLIC FUNERAL BY THE DENVER ELKS

(By Associated Press.)
DENVER, Jan. 15.—The west yesterday bade farewell to all that was mortal of Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). And the west, in its own words, "did itself proud" in its parting with the man who helped to make its history.

Two state governors, a lieutenant governor, officials and legislators from three states, the United States army, fraternal organizations of which he was an honored member, former cowboys, the Grand Army of the Republic, and men, women and children—thousands of the latter—paid tribute to the illustrious son of the prairies.

"Colonel Cody was the most picturesque figure in American history," declared John W. Springer, Denver millionaire banker, friend of Col. Cody, delivering the eulogy of the Elks' services. "His achievements were household words throughout the land. He was truly the American home builder, blazing the trail to the virgin west."

Col. Cody's body was brought into the state capitol building at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. It lay beneath the dome of the capitol, from the flagpole of which the Stars and Stripes floated at half mast. Troopers from Fort Logan formed lines through which the people passed.

When the big doors of the building were thrown open, the crowd poured in. There were hundreds of boys and girls in the throng.

DALLAS ENJOYS 7 INCHES SNOW

SOUTHERN CHILDREN WELCOME A BLIZZARD THAT BRINGS SLEDDING

(By Associated Press.)

DALLAS, Jan. 15.—North and central Texas are in the grip of a storm which has assumed almost blizzard proportions. Dallas is covered by a seven inch snowfall, an almost unprecedented occurrence here, while as far south as Waco a fall of over an inch is reported. Children in this vicinity, virtually sledless through successions of mild winters, rose to the unusual opportunities afforded by the white mantle and commandeered old rocking chairs, on which they scooped in grotesque curves through the city streets.

COUNTY MONEY FOUND PRESENT AND OVER

When the county commissioners counted the contents of the Nye county treasury this morning they discovered a discrepancy of three cents, exactly that much more money on hand than the accounts showed, due to the lack of pennies in making change. The amount of balance on the black side of the ledger was the satisfactory sum of $113,681.06.

The county hospital and jail were visited during the morning, but no report has yet been rendered. This afternoon licenses were issued to two stationary engineers. Orders were given Chief of Police Grant to collect all town licenses in arrears. Mrs. Goetz and J. S. McQuillan appeared before the board protesting against the keeping of the bowling alley open after 11 o'clock at night because of the disturbance to slumber.

HIGH PRICE OF PAPER LEADS TO BANKRUPTCY

(By Associated Press.)

JOHNSTOWN, Penn., Jan. 15.—Financial difficulties due to the increased cost of news print paper and other items of publication forced the Johnstown Leader, an afternoon daily, into a receivership.

At 12 o'clock, the hour set for the closing of the casket, the crowd still was coming. The public was held back while the family bade the colonel farewell. In the family party was "Johnny" Baker of New Rochelle, N. Y., who was with Col. Cody in his wild west enterprises for many years.

Following the family, a delegation of Palestine commandery, No. 13, Knights Templar, from North Platte, Neb., passed the bier. Afterwards marched a delegation of former cowboys. "Good-bye, old pard," "Good-bye, Bill," were some of their greetings.

The guard of honor at the casket included delegations from the Colorado national guard, the Pioneer society, the Elks, and the Grand Army of the Republic.

One member of the detachment from the last named organization came across the plains with Col. Cody. He was David Rankin of Denver.

The public again was admitted at 12:10 o'clock for 20 minutes.

A line extending more than a block shivered in the cold wind waiting for a chance to enter. Twenty-five thousand persons passed by the casket, according to an estimated count.

And, singularly, with it all, the ways of the circus and the show ring were present to the last.

"Step lively, please; big crowd behind," cried the master of ceremonies.

VETERAN MINER PASSES TO REST

DUNCAN G. McCORMICK, FORMER MIZPAH SHIFT BOSS, DIED LAST EVENING

Duncan G. McCormick, one of the best known miners of the district, ended his struggle against a lingering illness last evening at 5:30 o'clock when he passed into eternal rest.

Deceased was vice dictator of Moose lodge, No. 974, of Tonopah, and was affiliated with the Oddfellows until about 12 years ago, when he took a withdrawal card after having high honors in the order. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Oddfellows hall under the joint auspices of the Oddfellows and Moose orders, the pallbearers being selected from the members. Interment will be in the Moose plot of the local cemetery.

Mr. McCormick was born December 20, 1862, at the Cliff mine, Michigan, the first copper mine located in the Lake Superior district. He went to Butte, Mont., in 1893, where he resided almost continually until 1906, when he came to Tonopah. He was employed as shift boss in the Mizpah mine from 1906 to 1912 and a widow and adopted son, Billy, survive.

The mother of deceased died at Jamestown, N. D., February 20, 1916. One brother, Jack, died in Stockton May 31, 1916, and a sister, Kate, of Auburn, Wash., on December 18, 1916. A brother, Dan, lives in Stockton and another, Harry, is a resident of Dawson, Yukon. One sister lives in Jamestown, N. D., and another in Chicago. A nephew lives in Seattle.

Mr. McCormick suffered from a complication of disorders that brought on dropsy. His removal will be regretted by every man who was favored with his friendship, as he was known for his sterling qualities and one who never went back on his word.

TWO SUBMARINES TAKEN BY ITALY

AUSTRIAN UNDERSEA BOATS ADDED TO KING HUMBERT'S NAVAL FORCE

(By Associated Press.)

ROME, Jan. 15.—The capture of two submarines is reported in war office announcements, which follow: "The enemy submarine VC-12, which the German navy ceded to Austria-Hungary, has fallen into our hands and become a unit of our torpedo squadrons. Another enemy submarine, the VT-12, belonging to the Austro-Hungarian navy, also is in our possession.

"Italian and French hydroplanes on Friday dropped bombs on the enemy's works at Pola. Enemy airplanes made a counter attack, but were repulsed. One of our hydroplanes successfully fought three enemy airplanes.

"Enemy airplanes bombarded our torpedo boats at sea, without effect. All our units returned to their base undamaged."

AMUSEMENTS

A. & B. THEATER

At this house today Samuel S. Hutchinson presents William Russell in "The Man Who Would Not Die." In the dual role of Ward and Clyde Kingsley, the twin brothers around whom the exciting action of Mabel Condon's intensely interesting story, William Kingsley makes the most of a splendid opportunity for clever character drawing. As the good brother, fighting against his love for his beautiful sister-in-law, and as the hardened criminal scheming to destroy his own flesh and blood for the sake of gold, William Russell's powerful and convincing acting places "The Man Who Would Not Die" at the very top of the long list of this popular star's dramatic successes.

Also a one-reel comedy, "Knocking Out Knockout Kelly." Tomorrow, "If My Country Should Call," five reels, a story of mother love and war. Do not miss this as it is very appropriate at this time.

BUTLER THEATER

A real treat will be given all the picture fans this evening at the Butler, as the popular screen favorite, Lillian Walker, will again make her appearance in a Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature entitled "Indiscretion."

She was a care-free girl, the conventions of society never bothered her one whit. Unrestrained youth grew into indiscreet womanhood. Thrown into a tragic compromise with a married man, with whom she plays coquette, she reaches a point in her childish ignorance where the burning light of experience pierces through her indiscretion. You cannot help but like Lillian Walker in "Indiscretion." In the Pathe News will be featured the president addressing congress, new British premier, American ambassador returning to Germany, and scenes on the Mexican border.

A special musical program during the first show. Tomorrow, another excellent program. Dustin Farnum in the celebrated stage success, "Davy Crockett," and Burton Holmes travels, "In British Egypt."
